Join us as a 2015 business participant at the Connecticut League of History Organization's Annual Conference & Awards of Merit Luncheon. Your sponsorship and/or purchase of an Exhibitor Hall Table gives you face-to-face contacts with the decision-makers among our heritage community.

Our conference attracts over 125 individuals representing the museum and library community in Connecticut, Rhode Island, and Massachusetts. Sponsoring our conference is simply the most effective way to get your business noticed with CLHO's nearly 275 members – and purchasing power among the southern New England heritage community!

For over 60 years, the Connecticut League of History Organization has strengthened and built connections among those who preserve and interpret the stories and objects of our past by sharing knowledge and expertise, and promoting best practices. Visit www.clho.org for updated conference information.
